

FOPPIANO

VINEYARDS

ESTABLISHED 1896

Lot 96, Bin 002

Foppiano Vineyards ~ Proprietary Blend

Established in 1896, and more than 100 years after its founding, Foppiano Vineyards continues to do what it did at its outset; create outstanding red wines with genuine varietal character, on its 200-acre Russian River Valley estate. This tradition is the foundation and the future for the Foppiano family's commitment to their second century of excellence.

Foppiano Vineyards Lot 96, Bin 002 is a red wine crafted by Foppiano Vineyards. The name "Lot 96" was chosen to reflect Foppiano's original roots, dating back to 1896. After all of these years, we're still family owned and operated. While we continue to embrace our past, we're also deeply rooted in the present. Lot 96 is our way of bringing a great value wine to you. Lot 96 is a wine that you can simply enjoy with your everyday meals and share with your family and friends.

Foppiano Vineyards offers red wine as our primary focus, and is the leader in Petite Sirah education:

- ❖ Petite Sirah
- ❖ Merlot
- ❖ Cabernet Sauvignon
- ❖ Pinot Noir

Tech Data:

Varietals:	28% Sangiovese, 19% Petite Sirah, 17% Zinfandel, 14% Carignane, 10% Merlot, 9% Cabernet Sauvignon, 3% Cabernet Franc
Appellation:	California
Production:	20,000 cases
Release:	Spring 2008
Alcohol:	13.8%
TA:	0.60 grams/100 ml
pH:	3.50

Winemaker Bill Regan's Notes:

Lot 96, Bin 002 has a bright bouquet full of red fruit aromas; raspberry jam and red currants; added notes of cherry blossoms develop with trailing scents of cedar, vanilla bean and toasty oak. The palate follows nose with more jammy raspberry flavors. This wine is easy and accessible with nice fruit to acid balance. The jammy finish lingers with fresh cherry pie ala mode flavors.

An ideal wine to pair with all kinds of grilled meats, including sausages, Bar-B-Q friendly dishes and tomato/garlic pasta recipes.

Suggested Retail: $9.99